Elements of SoulCollage: A practice of self-discovery

Thursdays, 1:00pm-3:30pm • January 11, February 1, March 1, April 5 & May 3

SoulCollage® is a powerful creative process that gently enables you to hear the deep wisdom of your own inner-knowing through the practice of collage art.

This soul-tending practice honors one's personal journey, while promoting personal growth and self-discovery. To deepen our understanding of and break open the meaning of the SoulCollage Deck, each session will begin with 30 minutes of instruction, followed by guided meditation and card-making. Our day will conclude with journaling and a brief sharing of our images, if desired. (Enjoy early registration for the series of all five.)

Jan 11 – Basics; including Source Card

Feb 1 – The Committee Suit; The Psychological Dimension

Mar 1 – The Community Suit; The Communal Dimension

Apr 5 – The Companion Suit; The Energetic Dimension

May 3 – The Council Suit; The Archetypal Dimension

$25/session. Registration required one week prior to session.

About the facilitators...

Sharon Devo is on staff at Tau Center as Program Specialist, Retreat Leader and Program Facilitator. With a nearly 30 year meditation practice, rooted in desert spirituality and eastern traditions, she creates space in her life for solitude and silence daily. In addition to meditation, Sharon relies on extended time in nature, yin yoga and creative work in her home studio, as the foundation for ongoing spiritual exploration and life balance. Training as a Co-Active Coach, SoulCollage® and Open Studio Process facilitator, she completed the Spiritual Deepening for Global Transformation Certificate at Christine Center in 2010.
