

Retreat & Spiritual Directors

Our Spiritual Directors are available to accompany you in a process of reflection and response rooted in the sharing of your own sacred stories and spiritual issues.

Through friendly and compassionate listening and gentle inquiry, spiritual direction helps awaken you to the Divine in all of life and helps you to notice God's presence in the moments of daily life. If you are interested in spiritual direction, please contact any of the following Tau Center trained and Certified Spiritual Directors below.

Sharon Devo

Sharon's intention is to be fully present with you in the space and silence, to allow your inner wisdom and the still small voice of the divine to emerge and be heard.

At ease with a variety of faith and spirituality traditions, Sharon is on staff at Tau Center, in addition to her work as a Spiritual Director/Companion. In response to her interest in the Desert Mothers and Fathers, she studied Spiritual Direction at Hesychia School of Spiritual Direction in Tucson AZ. Sharon is passionate about the integration of creative work and the spiritual path, both in her personal practice and in work with individuals and retreatants. She will be completing her certificate in "Awakening the Creative Spirit" at Abbey of the Arts in Fall, 2017.

Bob is a Secular Franciscan. As a writer and editor, he understands spiritual direction as a form of sacred storytelling. In these stories, we learn to recognize and understand who God is calling us to be. In addition to being a certified spiritual director, Bob practices Ignatian spirituality and integrates the practice and philosophy of tai chi into his particular way of finding God in all things.

Credentials: Certified Spiritual Director, trained at Christos Center for Spiritual Formation

Kimberly believes our power to love the marginalized comes through learning to love the margins of our own soul. She speaks, writes, and is a spiritual director to this end: helping other connect to and experience the Love of God for themselves. Through her own story of stillbirth, trauma, crushing disappointments, and chronic illness she has come to know all of life has invitation to transformation. When she's not writing, reading, or painting some part of her house, you can find her drinking kombucha or enjoying nature with her husband and three kids. She has written for Christianity Today, smallgroups.com, Loyola Press, Herald Press, The Redbud Post, and The Mudroom. You can find her writing, inquire about spiritual direction, or ask her to speak at kimberlypenrodpelletier.com.
